The Citroën C5 is a large family car produced by the French manufacturer Citroën since March 2001, and now in its second generation. The C5 replaced the Citroën Xantia, in the large family car class. It is not the first Citroën with "Cx" naming nomenclature, as it was used by its ancestors, the C4 and C6 from 1930. The third generation is expected to be released in 2020.

Mobility does not offer permanently installed child seats in its vehicles. We are unable to offer permanently installed child seats for children up to the age of four for reasons of liability (Mobility would be responsible for their installation and good working order) and for practical reasons (most families with small children already have a child seat of their own).
