When we get into a classroom, we can see what the teacher is doing and saying. We can see how they're acting. We can see what students are doing and saying. We can take note of the resources they're using, we can get a feel for the learning environment, but we must never forget that there's also much that we can't see.. When we fail to see "œthe whole iceberg"• of teacher practice, we tend to ...
